The Next Noel

By Dennis and Nan Allen Unison/2-Part

This musical works wonderfully as a brand new production or can be used as a sequel to The First Leon. Leon is again the center of the action, only this year, he, having matured from the simple state of understudy, is directing the Christmas pageant. He has grand and lofty dreams and expectations for the program. However, the closer the cast gets to opening night, the more wildly overstated and ridiculous Leon's ideas become - and more importantly, the more the program becomes all about Leon's initiative instead of God's miracle at Christmas. 35 minutes in length.

"As a worship leader in a church, I am always looking for ways to add life and vitality to our congregational music. The hymn arrangements from Grace have really fit the bill. Not only do they provide challenging and exciting choral and orchestral experiences, but our congregation loves them too! We have experienced some incredible worship in our body, singing and playing these arrangements together. I recommend them to any church that wants to add new energy to familiar, well-loved songs."

Make A Joyful Noise

By Allen Pote SATB w/opt. percussion

Rhythmic energy characterizes this Allen Pote anthem based on Psalm 95 and 100, instructing us to "make a joyful noise to God and sing!" The contrast of shifting modes between minor and major tonalities, as well as a shift between rhythmic lines contrasted with legato melodic lines is a fine example of text painting, reflecting each of these familiar Psalm texts.
